“ When I was a troubled 15-year-old, uncle Alfred took me back to Chicago with him in his car to help him move to Northbrook. He took me to see Styx at Alpine Valley, WI. He had to ascend a huge hill that wasn't easy for him to climb because he wasn't in that great of shape at the time. He took me out to eat every day and night for the week I visited.

He was always so witty and funny.

I always wished I could spend more time with him, which was never to be as we always lived so far apart. If only I could afford it, I'd been wanting to come to KC; one of the reasons being, to see him.

God bless your neshomoh, uncle Al.

God please give us Moishiach so we only have good news.
