“ Dear Harvey and Family,
Although I only knew Alice for a short time when she was our realtor looking to find us a patio home, villa or another home with a different layout. She was bright, cherry, fun to be around and always had so many options to show us and always with a big smile. At the time I had an obsession with a gate in the front of the villa and possibly a small water feature and she was bound and determined to find that special place. Although, it never came to fruition I remember how hard she tried and what a pleasure she was to work with!
I send you my deepest condolences, much love and many prayers. May her memory be a blessing.

“ Dear Harvey, Andy, Jon,& Sarah: I know I don't have to tell any of you what a treasure Alice was to everyone who knew her, because I know you know this even better than the rest of us. Alice was one of my parents most treasured and admired friends, and I feel grateful to both of them for giving me a reason to know and love her too. Seeing the White Theater packed to capacity didn't surprise me for a minute. She was, and remains, so beloved.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Grossman Family,

Alice was an incredible woman. I remember growing up with Sarah and knowing (even at 12 years old) how special she was. I can remember her smile, her laugh and the way she always made Sarah and I feel like the most special kids in the world. I'm grateful to have known such a woman, and I like to think I learned a thing or two from her along the way. #schoolofalice

“ What a beautiful celebration today of the loving life of Alice. It was a great honor to have known Alice and although briefly, attend the school of Alice! She is greatly missed in body, but clearly her spirit of love and generosity (not to mention match making) live on through the many people she touched. All the best to you and your wonderful family Harvey.

“ Dear Grossman Family, I send my condolences to all of you on the loss of Alice, whom I knew way back in high school and whom I remember vividly, despite the many years between then and now.

Based on the touching tributes written here, Alice grew into a beautiful, caring woman who brought joy and delight to those who knew her.

I wish the family the traditional blessing: HaMakom y'nachem etchem b'toch sh'ar aveilei Tziyon viY'rushalayim. May the Omnipresent comfort you among all the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem. May Alice's indelible goodness and kindness remain ever present with those who remember her with love.

“ I was shocked and very saddened to read about the passing of Alice, please accept my condolences. I met Alice while in grade school at Cyndy Wasserman's slumber party. She left a genuine impression on me back then. Our paths would cross at preschool, bar and bat mitzvahs and Hen House on Roe. We were also FB friends. Any time we'd see each other, she was smiling, warm and friendly. I will miss that she is not with us.

“ I'll never forget how she watched over my kids. She called me one day and asked if I was missing a child. I really wasn't but she said my youngest son David was in her basement playing with the bunny. I didn't know he was there and neither did she, but she saw the light on in the basement and found him there. This saddens me and I know her memory will be for a blessing. I would definitely be there, but I am out of town. My condolences go to Harvey and the kids.

“ Alice and i met in February of 1956, when we were 4 years old. I jumped on her trampoline when she hosted a party during junior high. We shared stories in the locker room before and after gym class. She was a cute little girl who grew up to be a pretty woman, outside and in. I don't remember hearing an unkind word from her or about her. What a sad, sad loss. Mark joins me in sending sincere condolences to Harvey and all the family.
