

ANDREW MICHAEL EVELOFF

November 16, 1992 - December 31, 2016

Andrew Michael Eveloff, 24, passed away peacefully and comfortably at his home on December 31, 2016, from complications arising from his Muscular Dystrophy. He was surrounded by his family, loved ones and the people who he cared about most. Andrew was proudly attending Johnson County Community College, working towards his goal of ultimately becoming a journalist.

An unbelievably compassionate son, brother and friend, Andrew filled those around him with joy and inspiration. His compassion could only be matched by his strength, rising above every obstacle placed before him while comforting those around him to ensure they were as happy as he was.

Andrew's loving and proud parents, Scott Eveloff and Ruth Eisen, and adoring siblings, Emily and Dan Eveloff, are left immeasurably better because of Andrew's life and his unparalleled ability to uplift and inspire others.

A celebration of Andrew's life will be held on Friday, January 6, 2017, at the Jewish Community Center (JCC) in the Multi Activity Center (MAC) at 1:00 p.m. Please enter through the Lewis and Shirley White Theatre entrance. You can honor Andrew by making donations to either the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), the Make a Wish Foundation, or KSDS Assistance Dogs, Inc.

“ Scott and Ruth,

We were deeply sorry to hear about the passing of your son, Andrew. Our sincere condolences to both of you and your family. We know that you were both very proud of him, and were even inspired to write a book about his early years, "Both Sides of the White Coat." May you find that same strength that got you through those difficult times in his life, now and always. A life such as his deserves to be honored and no doubt always be remembered.

“ As a physician who is the father of a daughter with Down Syndrome, some of what Scott and Ruth have faced is very clear to me. As one who practiced at Research Medical Center in the glory days that Dan Schlozman helped make possible, I daily saw what dedication and passion were in the members of Dan's group. I only saw Andrew once, but that burned in me an understanding of what must have been the driving force in Scott. Here was a solid capable physician who daily battled for the survival and well-being of his patients, but was not afforded the luxury of returning homne to wind down. And when I saw him at the J,he attacked the equipment with a ferocity that now can be seen in better perspective. Without a doubt, the length and quality of Andrew"s life could not have been in better hands. May that knowledge sustain you at this occasion and forever. Alan Hoffmann MD

“ Ruth and Scott,

I am so sorry to hear that Andrew has passed away. Even though I haven't seen Andrew since I have moved away, we communicated through messaging every once in a while. He is someone who really touched my heart and that I will never forget. He was always such a bright spot in my day when I saw him. I loved his sense of humor and he never ceased to amaze me, especially in the pool! Thank you so much for sharing him with me for all those years. We had a lot of fun together. You all taught me so much about love, perseverance, and commitment. May you be comforted by all of your wonderful memories together and by God's love. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Love,

“ ;Dear Ones,

I had no idea that Andrew had passed away. I am so sorry for your loss. My only way to know was to hear from Marcia, and that is over too. I can only send my hopes for Andrew to be in peace.

For you who loved and cared for him, comfort that you did everything you could to help him and show your love.

God Bless you!

“ Andrew has been one of my closest friends since we first met in the 5th grade. He was not only an inspiration to me, helping lead me to my current career, but an inspiration to everyone he met. Even when I moved away for college and graduate school, Andrew and I kept in touch on a regular basis and got together whenever I was home. His passion for life, family, friends, and of course TV/movies was unparalleled. Andrew will truly be missed, but our friendship and the memories we had together will stay with me forever.

“ Scott,

So sorry to hear of Andrew's passing. He was a great kid.

He was so lucky to have you and your wife as parents.

I cant think of anyone else I know who could have given him more or done anything better for him than you two. You two were a role model for so many and wonderful guides throughout Andrews journey.

“ You son was such a bright spot in my life over the many years that I was honored to have known him. He inspired me and made me laugh all at the same time. His quick wit always kept me on my toes, and reminded me of the special young man he was. I will always remember chasing him around the pool trying to get him to slow down and him laughing at me the entire time. You did well.
