

Brooke Tivol McGrath

December 1, 1982 - January 11, 2011

. . On January 11, 2011, we unexpectedly lost our precious Brooke to a virulent bacterial infection. Her departure has left us shocked and with a feeling of profound despair. After graduating from The Pembroke Hill School in 2001 where she excelled in French, music, and athletics, she attended Emory University in Atlanta. She graduated with honors and a degree in French and Psychology. Brooke knew she wanted the Big Apple, so it was off to NYC for her. After her first job in the jewelry industry at Fabrikant, she sought to further her education and moved to Antwerp for 4 months to learn the ins and outs of the diamond trade. Brooke returned to New York and found her dream job at Carelle as the Director of Strategic Merchandising and Product Development. In so many ways, Brooke was the glue that held the family together. She reached out to siblings and friends with kindness and love. Never far from her camera, she loved to document her life. Now, we're all so grateful for that. Brooke was the organizer at work and at home. If you needed Kleenex or Tylenol, she was your girl. Her exquisite beauty is not just outward, but much more importantly, comes from within. Whether dressed in jeans or black tie, her innate sense of style shone through. Brooke was a dedicated and loyal friend, loved by many and cherished by all. We were each blessed to spend time on this earth with her and we will forever be shaped by her beauty, grace, and humor. Brooke was our daughter, our sister, our friend, and our confidante. She leaves a hole in our hearts that will never be filled. Brooke is survived by her parents, Tom McGrath, Cathy and Mark Maslan; siblings Derek Tivol McGrath and his daughter Lydia; Danielle Marie Maslan; Hunter Tivol McGrath and his wife Gloria, and Andrew Ellis Maslan. Grandparents Ruthie and Harold Tivol and Mimi Maslan.

She is preceded in death by Germaine and William McGrath, Rolla and Henri Rose, and Leon Maslan. Brooke leaves many loving aunts, uncles, and cousins. Funeral services will be 10:30am Sunday, January 16 at The Louis Memorial Chapel, 6830 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri. Burial at Rose Hill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please send contributions to the Mollie Tivol Alzheimer's Family Resource Center, 3846 W. 75th Street, Prairie Village, Kansas 66208 or the charity of your choice.

“ Dear Cathy, Tom, Mark: My heart goes out to you, to all of your family and to those who held Brooke dear. The wrenching away of this precious child of your soul can only be healed in some way, by the realization that essence of her beauty, of her being is very much ingrained in your lives and the lives of all of those whom she touched. Amidst your tears I pray for your comfort, knowing of the blessings that she brought to all of us. Affectionately, Stuart

“ Dear Cathy, I have,unfortunately,two other friends who have lost their children to this insidious infection. It is the worst pain I have witnessed and my heart aches for what you are experiencing. I recall the thoughtful and "thought filled" thank-you note Brooke wrote me after helping her choose her Deb gown for the Jewel Ball a few years ago. She was so considerate and appreciative. That was a fun day for you, Ruthie and Brooke. I hope memories of many other fun days help you through this tragic season of your family's life. Your friend, Michael Nolte

I just learned late today of Brooke's passing. I am so sorry for your loss. Altho I never had the pleasure to meet her personally, she is an impressive young woman who had worked hard to achieve her outstanding credentials. Her personality glows through her picture--it is obvious she was as beautiful inside as outside.

Know that wherever you are, whatever challenge you may be facing, she is there beside you, always...

“ To the entire Family and Friends of Brooke: We are so very sorry for your loss. As I sit here trying to write something that may remotely make you feel better I've realized I don't know any words that can bring comfort at a time like this. I too have a daughter Brooke's age and I can't imagine this world without her. May your love for Brooke and the memories you have of her bring some comfort to you all. God Bless.

“ Cathy and Mark, Harold and Ruthie and all the family,

I cannot possibly explain how sad I am for your loss and how sick we are about Brooke. As I watched her grow up and having my own Brooke of the same age, she felt just a little bit like one of my own. Though my words are so little at a time like this, please know that our love, thoughts and prayers are with you and we will continue to keep you there in the months ahead. May God speak to you in those darkest moments and remind you how much he loves you and Brooke and encourage all of us who love you and her to reach out and remind you of that often. We love you all.

Kim Spalding - January 13, 2011 at 01:03 PM

“ Dear Cathy:

My heart filled condolences are sent to you and your family for your devastatingly sad loss. As a mother who has lost, I cannot imagine knowing how beautifully Brooke had come into her own, and where she could have gone, how difficult this loss is to you and your family. I wish you strength from the many family and friends who will surround you during the days, months, and years ahead. One day at a time, many would say to me... God Bless you and your family.
