

Dorothy "Tea" Stiefel

June 8, 1920 - November 2, 2014

Tea Stiefel died peacefully on November 2, 2014, at Village Shalom. Born in Dinslaken, Germany, on June 8, 1920, she immigrated to America in 1938, and moved to Kansas City to marry in 1942. She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Erwin Stiefel, and her two sons-in-law. She is survived by her treasured family: daughters, Joan Greenbaum and Marsha Pinson, seven grandchildren, two great grandchildren, plus innumerable friends of all ages, and loving caregivers.

She was always an active member of The Temple, Congregation B'nai Jehudah and a devoted volunteer for many organizations committed to helping others. She was always a caring friend.

The funeral service will be held on Tuesday, November 4, at 1:30pm at B'nai Jehudah, located at 12320 Nall Avenue in Overland Park, KS. Burial will follow at Rose Hill Cemetery, 6900 Troost, Kansas City, MO.

In lieu of flowers, donations to B'nai Jehudah or to Village Shalom, 5500 West 123rd Street, Overland Park, KS 66209, would be greatly appreciated.

“ Dear Family,
I met Tea through activities with Council of Jewish Women and adored her from the start! What a lovely lady with warmth and real class. She shall be missed. May her memory always be for a blessing.
Sincerely, Joyce Zeldin

“ Joan and Marsha -- I was deeply saddened to learn of Tea's passing. She was such a beautiful lady -- in the truest sense. I have many fond memories of her over many years, I particularly loved seeing her and Erwin often in the neighborhood during the years Susan and I lived at 91st and Fontana. We would always go by their home with our daughters on the walk to the duck pond. She always had a smile, a wave and a warm hello. She had a vibrancy, an inner beauty, and a caring compassion for others that endeared her to everyone. May her memory ever be for blessing.

“ Tea was a lovely, gracious lady who always had time for others. I remember her as always being impeccably dressed and in high heels even at her advanced age---and with a smile for everyone.. My life is richer for having known her.
I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I have met few people who could match the spirit of Tea. I will continue to admire her strength, her sense of justice and decency, and her wonderful love of life.
