“ What a loving and talented woman! She was one of my favorite people; I went away feeling like she was my friend the first time I got to see her. Oh, the stories of her growing up! Knowing 7 languages! And also the language of the heart. She blessed us with her being. I also started wearing lip stick regularly because of her (: Thank you, Felicia.

“ I had the pleasure of being with Felicia on Shabbats when I would help with services at Village Shalom. She always sat in the front row and thanked me for the d'var torahs I gave. I will miss her. May her memory be a blessing.

“ I work in the Wellness Department at Village Shalom. Every Tuesday and Thursday I lead exercise classes in Adult Stay. Meeting Felicia was a pleasure. She would often sing along with the music and help count in her many languages. Even though I only knew Felicia for nine months, she made a huge impact on my life. What a blessing she was to everyone at Village Shalom. I missed her today in class, but thinking about her made me smile. Blessings to Felicia's family.

“ Thank you so much for giving us the honor of getting to know your mother. Felicia was a dynamite personality here and we all felt like a family with her as the lead teacher. Everyday she had a word in another language, anecdotes of her life, information of some kind for us as a group in discussions and for me personally. She was, of course, a big personality and a help to her tablemates assisting them with menus. We will greatly miss her...we already do “ Loved sitting next to Felicia Brill and Gertrude Stern at B'nai Jehudah Friday evening Shabbat services and High Holidays. We would chat before services began. Both ladies were walking/talking history books. I so enjoyed listening to Felicia's stories of having to learn 8 languages fluently because her Jewish family had to move around Europe so much trying to escape persecution. She was quite a lady, as was Gertrude. Felicia told me she worked for insurance companies in her career. Because of her facility with knowing so many languages and being able to deal with customers in several countries where they did business, she was in high demand .
