“ Dear Smith Family,

My wife & I moved to KC in 2010 & was given the phone number (816-835-9816). Apparently the number had been Mace's before it was given to us. So for a period of a year I got phone calls for Mace & his business. Being a little curious I started talking with these folks & felt like I got to know Mace via his customers. All customers spoke very highly of him & almost without exception they apologized for bothering me. The calls backed off after a year but continued in small numbers up until a couple weeks ago. I got a call from a lady for Mace's wife wanting to know the hospice facility he was in. The lady told me about the recent sale of his business & his diagnosis of cancer. She also said the disease was progressing rapidly. I started reading the obituaries. Today I read the news I really didn't want to see but provided information about a man I had only known thru his customers.

There is little anyone can do or say at a time like this, but I wanted you all to know he was held in high esteem by his customers. My sympathy is with you.

“ Dear Family, We are saddened by Mace's passing. Miles of highway and a lifetime of work kept us from spending much time together, but the family ties bound us deeply. Our heartfelt sympathy in this time of sorrow, and know that I would have been present for the service but for the ice storm here. Love,Cousin Eugene

“ Brenda, Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Mace is loved more than he could possibly have known. Please let us know if we can do anything. (Even if it's just to listen or give you a shoulder.)

Love you.

“ We are very saddened by the passing of our dear friend Mace. He will be missed greatly. His kind spirit and his willingness to always help is an attribute that is not easily found today.

We enjoyed Mace and Brenda's company and friendship over the years.

Brenda, you have our deepest condolences and know we will be there for you always.

Maces memory will live on and we will never forget him.

Mace we love you and thank you for being a great friend.
