“ I miss you already mom Natalie! We all can't believe you're gone. I know you're looking over us as I write this and smiling about us reminiscing. Angie just mentioned you bringing the girls down to The Seafood Cafe where mom worked, I waited tables on Saturday's, I imagine you came to see me :) The "cool" mom you were, letting me spend the night multiple nights a week, school nights included, for years and years, I have a plethora of memories I could write a book. The nights we watched Bowling for Dollars, the nights you colored in all those coloring books with us (I thought that was so cool), all the shopping trips to Ward Parkway, all the rides to Coachlite, you introducing me to onion bagels w, not lox, but peanut butter, your late night sweet tooth trips ;) , sleeping in your bed n hearing Peppy lick herself all night...lol, the new Mustang you were so proud of and we thought you were like a Charlies Angel driving that, especially that cute baby voice you used and spoke in third person calling the babies "its", for instance "Wuts wong with it, fix it, give it wut it wants?" when a baby was crying. Lastly, your sweet voice, the huge smile on your face EVERY time I saw you, your tender embrace, your genuine love for my children, and now theirs, your kind and gentle spirit, the love you had for your Snoopy, your daughters, and than your Lukey boy! You truly were one of a kind and honestly put your family first ALWAYS! Today starts a new season for all of us who were blessed to have known you. Life will never ever be the same. All my love Jacqui and Angie, RIP sweet Natalie, my other mother <3

“ Dearest Cousins Jeff, Karyn, Angi Sue & Jacqui:

Needless to say, I have lost a piece of my heart with the passing of my beloved Cousin Natalie Joy and your beloved Sister and Mother.

Over the past years I have regrettably had to send condolences such as this but never have I found it as difficult to do as in this instance, since she is my First Cousin.

I can only add my own words of deep and sincere condolences & I pray that the good Lord will grant you His guidance and comfort & I sincerely hope that the days and years ahead will be filled with many moments of pleasure and good health for all of you.

“ I so fondly remember my "grown up cousin Natalie" during my childhood in KC...she was so beautiful, and had that radiant smile. While there weren't a lot of opportunities to see one another once I moved away, the few times that we did connect, she would always throw her arms around me with a warm "Cousin Paul!" Greeting. I know she will be greatly missed by Angi and Jacqui and their families, and Jeff and his family, too. Amy and I wish for you strength as you grieve for your Mom and Sister. With love, Cousin Paul
