

Seymour Krinsky

July 19, 1928 - July 31, 2020

Seymour Krinsky, 92 of Overland Park, KS, passed away July 31, 2020. Private family services will be held on Sunday, Aug.2 at 2:30PM at Kehilath Israel Blue Ridge Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to the Thomas Goldenberg Scholarship Fund at Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy or the Krinsky Family Fund @ Kehilath Israel Synagogue.

In the spring of 1952, the late Rabbi Maurice Solomon contacted Yeshiva University in New York City, that his Synagogue, Kehilath Israel, was looking for a young, outgoing Associate Rabbi, to meet its fast-growing needs. Rabbi Solomon was then put in touch with Seymour Krinsky.

Seymour, who was born in New York City and raised in Brooklyn, was a graduate of Long Island University with a B.S. degree in Economics. He assumed his Rabbinical duties at K.I. in July of 1952.

Seymour returned to New York in the fall of 1954 to pursue a career on Wall Street and has been a member of the investment community ever since.

He returned to Kansas City in January of 1955 as a customer's man for Bache & Co. Though the name on the door has changed, Seymour never left. He was a Senior Vice President of Investment at Wells Fargo Advisors for almost 60 years and retired in 2018 from RBC as Sr. Vice President, Financial Advisor after being in the business 65 years.

Seymour was a member of Kehilath Israel Synagogue and Beth Shalom Synagogue. He was preceded in death by his parents, Rabbi Jacob and Sarah Krinsky, his first wife, Jocelyn Goldberg Wienshenk Krinsky, his brother, Rabbi Fred Krinsky and daughter-in-law, Melissa Goldenberg.

Seymour is survived by his second wife, Marsha Rogovein Goldenberg Krinsky; his daughters and son-in-law: Jerri Ann and Larry Arlan, Leawood, KS; Sharon and Joel

Davis, Glenview, IL; step-sons: Jeffrey Goldenberg, Leawood, KS; Richard Goldenberg and his wife Karen, London, England; step-daughter: Shira Zigler and her husband Scott, Overland Park, KS; grandchildren: Zachary, Jonathan and Sara Arlan; Elana, Kayla and Mirra Goldenberg; Tyler and Leah, Davis, Langston, Miller, Barrett, Coco, Raine, Peetsie and Winnie Goldenberg; Orli and Raya Zigler and great-granddaughter, Penelope Goldenberg.

“ We have many fond memories of Seymour during our years of working together with him at Prudential (Bache) and the various names our company became. Seymour was one of the most disciplined investment advisors we have ever known, although in those days, we were called stockbrokers. He was at his desk when the trading day started and had all his paper orders lined up to execute after conferring with his numerous clients. And there were many of them-clients and orders. By the end of the day, his desk would be clear and his work was done. He never left the office until he had fulfilled his daily work goal. Well, except for lunches. He always was in the lunchroom, nibbling on something and foraging in the refrigerator for anything that wasn't tied down. There was always a slice of orange or apple in his hand and he would come up and stick one in your hand, whether you wanted it or not. And always accompanied by a hearty hello and a bit of advice, as we said, whether you wanted it or not, a real character.

On a personal note, when our son was born Seymour was the first to offer congratulations and a gift. It was a stuffed frog called 'froggy' that made a ribbit sound and our son dragged it with him everywhere. It had to be washed in the middle the night as there was no parting with it, it was perpetually by his side. When we brought him to the office, he always brought froggy, much to seymour's delight. When we needed a speaker on different religions, Seymour came to our Sunday school class and gave a great talk about his work as a rabbi, it was an in-depth look at the Jewish religion and to see a man of great faith in action.

Seymour loved life and he loved people. There was not a person in the investment community who did not know him. You just had to mention his first name and the stories would begin. And we know for all of you who counted him as family or friend, they will continue.

“ I just heard yesterday that Seymour had passed away. My sisters and I were so sad to hear of your loss.

Working all our lives at Bob Jones, Seymour was a member of the extended family-- we certainly knew him for most of our lives. I couldn't even begin to count the number of times I heard his distinctive voice over the phone, "Hello, this is Seymour Krinsky." (I am crying just thinking about it.) He was always such a positive, kind man. I have so many memories of him, including him leading the Shiva for Ernie. He was a special person and he will be missed by many.

Our love to Marsha and ALL of Seymour's family.

“ Marsha and Family,

I remember meeting Seymour shortly after he arrived in Kansas City. At that time he became the youngest member of the the IRARI men's club. My father and Marsha's father, Tommy Rogovein were also members. My parents belongs to K I at that time and I thought of Seymour as what I called a "Rabbi's Rabbi". He was a "mensch". In his second career as a stockbroker, we had mutual clients. I looked forward to his annual call to discuss the tax problems with our mutual clients. His calls were very professional and concerned about not only our clients, but how I was doing. Upon a casual meeting he was always warm, friendly and happy to meet me. I will miss our usual annual calls and discussions, He will be sadly missed by all who met and got to know him. May his memory be a blessing to you and your family.

“ Dear Marsha and family,

Sandi and I were both sorry to hear of Seymour,s passing. I member when he became the youngest member of the IRARI mens group. That group also included your father, Tommy Rogovein. To me, he was the ideal of a Rabbi's Rabbi. As a stock broker in his second career, we shared mutual clients, which I enjoyed his call as each year- end to discuss their individual tax problems. To me, he was also friendly and professional, as well as a friend. His cheery smile and happy "hello" was his calling-card.. He will be missed and his memory will be blessing you, your family.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Krinsky family
I first met Seymour in the later '60s when I stayed at his house for SYO conclaves and conventions as Sharon, upon meeting, was my immediate bff. He was the rabbi turned stockbroker with a strong NY accent. Through the years, my husband and I have watched many Plaza lighting ceremonies from Seymour's office and have been included in many family gatherings and celebrations. Most recently, we enjoyed seeing his warm and grateful smile at his birthday drive by. We loved Seymour. He will be missed. Skip joins me in expressing our sincere condolences.

“ To all of the Krinsky Family,

Please accept our sincere condolences on his passing. He was a special and wonderful individual who gave himself to his community in every possible way. I met him when I was nine years old and formed an immediate bond with him as did other members of my family. He was the only person who ever called me Patsy, and I was never able to change that. Seymour was a religious pillar in the lives of so many and brought his unique talents of kindness and thoughtfulness to every life he touched. May all who mourn his loss pass his message on to others. With so much love,

“ I am so sorry for you loss. I will always remember Seymour and Marsha attending my ordination in The United Methodist Church, and was so honored that they came. Seymour always wanted to talk Torah when I saw him, which I always enjoyed. Once, I visited Seymour when he was hospitalized at Menorah, and he asked me to pray with him before I left. As we prayed, his nurse came into the room and waited until I was finished. Then Seymour said to the nurse, "this is my pastor." Seeing her very confused look, he started laughing and said, "I have all my bases covered." He will be missed!

“ A special relationship that I treasured with Seymour: I read Torah at Kehilath Israel each year for Scout Shabbat. Seymour would always share the Torah reading with me, maybe read half the aliyot, maybe just one. This past year, he was in the hospital, so I went to visit him and read the entire portion to him in his hospital room, so he could serve as my personal gabbai and correct me, contributing even though he couldn't be present in shul. We both really appreciated that experience. Norman Kahn

“ A GIANT in the KC Jewish community. Seymour knew everyone, and he showed it by remembering people's names their children's names, their stories. He was a connector and bridge for so many...age didn't make a difference, he was known by so many generations of Kansas Citians.
Seymour was a close family friend (how many others will write that?) of my parents and I only got to know him in his later years when he was my dad's financial advisor. Seymour was the type of mensch that provide comfort, advice, knowledge when one needed it. My sister and I needed it when our dad suddenly died. Seymour was his financial advisor, but to my sister and me he became our rock. He led our week of shiva, he and Marsha brought food, he took time to meet our kids and support them. Becoming our defacto advisor, he provided info and advice and respected our decisions. Then we became friends in our own right because who wouldn't want to be friends with Seymour!? I grieve for his family's loss and for our collective loss. He had a good life, with Marsha by his side, his children and grandchildren, his innumerable friends. It is a belief that one who dies prior or on Shabbat enters into eternal rest immediately. May Seymour's soul be at rest and in G-d's presence as the righteous person he was in life. My his memory be our blessing.
