“ I just heard about my friend Warren. He was a good man who was quick to laugh with you. He was a bright spot in our work environment and I never ceased to smile when I think of him.

He loved his wife and talked about being blessed to have his wonderful family. He was an example of what a good family man should be.

You will be missed my friend.

“ Warren was a super great guy - I only saw him a few times since h/s graduation but we were both advocates for working people and shared many laughs in our short time together - I will never forget him and still see him with that great smile and love of sports and life - Condolences to Louise and his beautiful family - JHG - or as Warren used to say " JG "

“ Dear Siegel Family,

I am writing to convey my condolences. Having experienced parental loss at a young age, I can imagine how difficult of a time this is for you all. I know Warren's spirit and best characteristics will continue forward in all of you.

I work at OMB with Matthew and can say Warren and Louise raised a conscientious, thoughtful, and genuinely kind individual. Warren's legacy continues.

We are all thinking of you and sending you strength.

Sincerely, Nicole Fernandes

“ Louise, Hollie, Heather and Matthew,
We are so sad to hear this news. We remember so well the shared good times of long ago as both of our families were growing. Warren was an exceptional person and asset to the community and we were lucky to have known him and all of you. May the strength of your love serve you now to deal with this transition.
With profound sympathy,

“ So very sorry for your loss. Warren was a great guy, and so very strong! I remember his love of God, his devotion to Judaism, his firm opinions, his running, and his love of his entire family most of all. When he'd tell me what time he awoke to run I could only admire and envy him. What energy and devotion. He will be sorely missed in our community.
